

Sue and I have a friend Hugh Kelly AKA The Beer Kid. Lovely chap. But apart from his passion for craft beers he has a bit of a thing for Liver and Onions. He also recently had a trip to Eastern Europe where he munched his way through all manner of ?Extreme ? offal based dishes, but let?s not go there!

So we decided to pimp up good old Liver and Onions in his honour!

Flour dredged fried Pork liver with Onion gravy on a bed of mashed potatoes with peas, crispy back Bacon and home grown Radish micro salad!!!

Sorry Hugh, just gently tugging at your chain man!
